SECOND INTERNATIONAL BORDER GOVERNORS' CONFERENCE
El Paso, Texas
October 6, 1981

R E S O L U T I O N N O. I

COMMENDING PRESIDENTS JOSE LOPEZ PORTILLO AND RONALD REAGAN

WHEREAS, President Jose Lopez Portillo has always expressed his most sincere wishes that Mexico and the United States be good neighbors in the true sense of the word; and

WHEREAS, since the beginning of his Administration, President Ronald Reagan has consistently demonstrated a recognition of the need for the furthering of better relations with our closest neighbor, Mexico; and

WHEREAS, President Ronald Reagan and President Lopez Portillo met in Washington, D.C., on June 8-9, 1981, and this meeting further unified the solid relationship between these two countries; and

WHEREAS, the necessary atmosphere of mutual respect, confidence, and trust were immediately established during this very important summit conference between Presidents Reagan and Lopez Portillo; and

WHEREAS, both Presidents have charted a committed course of increasing and improving economic development in trade and investment between the two nations;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the border governors of the United States and Mexico recognize and fully endorse President Ronald Reagan and President Jose Lopez Portillo in their efforts to further positive and effective dialogue with a continued emphasis on introducing programs that will serve to solidify the bonds of friendship and goodwill between Mexico and the United States.
